Fairfield seeks applications for Honors Committee

Fairfield, California (Tuesday, July 3, 2012)—The City of Fairfield is accepting applications for two openings on the Honors Committee. This Committee reviews nominations made by the community to name city streets and facilities in a nominee's honor, and makes recommendations to seated City commissions.

This Committee was established in 1995 to bestow honor on those who have made significant contributions to improve the quality of life in the community. Committee members, who are appointed by the City Council, attend quarterly meetings, consider nominations, and solicit input from local residents or businesses.

Qualified applicants for the Honors Committee must be long-time Fairfield residents, familiar with Fairfield heritage, committed to creating a stronger sense of community and enhancing the City's history, and able to attend quarterly meetings and occasional commission or City Council meetings.

Applications are available from the City Clerk's office at City Hall, 1000 Webster Street, 4th floor, in Fairfield or on the City's website at www.fairfield.ca.gov. For an application by mail or email, please call (707) 429-6296. The deadline to submit applications for the two current openings has been extended to Tuesday, July 31, 2012. For further information, contact Gale Spears at (707) 428-7611.
